

Community Education Building
Welcoming Our New School Resource Officer, Officer Osha D. Hudson
October 2022

The Community Education Building (CEB) is pleased to welcome Officer Osha Hudson as our new School Resource Officer!

Officer Hudson was born and raised in Wilmington Delaware. She completed her early education at Glasgow High School and continued her higher education at Strayer University and Wilmington University. The term service is no stranger to Officer Hudson as she has volunteered many places such as the Neighborhood House, People's Settlement, Food Bank of Delaware throughout the community, prior to becoming a member of the 99th Wilmington Police Academy, graduating in August of 2020.

As a member of the Wilmington Police Department, Officer Hudson is currently assigned as a School Resource Officer, Special Operations Unit. In just 3 years with the Wilmington Police Department, during which she served as a Patrol Officer, Officer Hudson was awarded the Kiwanis Officer of the Year for 2021.

Officer Hudson is the proud mother of C'Jia Hudson (a former Kuumba student) in which she firmly believes is the best part of her.

"We are excited Officer Hudson has joined the CEB Community! Officer Hudson provides our community with increased security while her warm and welcoming presence instills confidence. Our unique ecosystem includes young people and adults of all ages, and Officer Hudson's positive and inclusive mindset aligns with the values of our collaborative. Thank you, Officer Hudson, and the Wilmington Police Department for your continued partnership and service, especially your contribution to making CEB a safe and enriching learning environment!"

- Linda J. Jennings, CEB CEO

Please join us in welcoming Officer Hudson.
